Pizza Sam's Re-Opened for Business

(Midland, MI) – After a week-long shutdown for remodeling, Pizza Sam's has re-opened for business with a new look, an improved menu, and expanded kitchen capacity to serve customers more quickly. The recent changes mark the final phase of a major investment that the restaurant has made in the downtown location.

"The renovations have allowed Pizza Sam's to improve on our long-standing tradition as a favorite place for food and fun in downtown Midland. We're able to bring new items to the menu and more quickly serve meals," says owner Jim Stamas. "We're looking forward to welcoming back our loyal customers, as well as newcomers who want to discover fun at Sam's."

Once they enter the newly located front door, on Main Street, patrons will find many of the pizzas, soups, salads, side dishes, desserts and beverages they have come to expect from the award-winning restaurant, as well as some new selections, including warm baked subs. The names of the new sub sandwiches were chosen from suggestions submitted by customers through an in-store and online contest:

- Sam I Ham ham sub, named by LuAnn Sylvester and the Howard Family (Chris, Jennifer, Noah and Gabe)
- Main Street Bird turkey sub, named by Camille Parker
- The Godfather Italian sub, named by Arnie Mattheis
- Cow's Best Friend veggie sub, named by Sarah Smith
- Chubby Chicken with Cheese chicken sub, named by Mark Habitz's English Class at Bullock Creek Middle School
- The Lou E. Special chipotle club, named by the Howard Family
- The MBS meatball sub, named by Earl Gregory
- My Big Fat Greek Samwich gyro meat sub, named by Nick Jarrett

The winners of the sub-naming contest will each receive a party for 10, including the sub they named, chips and drinks.
